About me

I am naturally a competitive individual, that is what makes me tick. This therefore forces me to always look for ways improve, outwork, outlast and outstrategize those whom I compete with in any endeavor. It makes me a better team player for the sake of achieving the goals the company/organisation might have. I am solution driven because in what world do we not encounter problems. That is one of the reasons I read a lot of books and absorb content about different subjects matters so that I may become a toolbox where the company/organisation can draw from me to help solve even the most complex of issues with the rest of the team present. I stick to deadlines presented and complete the work to the upmost proficient level without fail or excuse, a professional at heart in all aspects of life. I have experience with interpersonal relationships, having lead over a group of 90 people who were in leadership council to preside over the whole school faculty ...therefore I know what needs to be done to resolve conflicts, inaction and unprofessionalism to ultimately get to the bottom-line. If given the chance like a striker , I don't miss opportunities. I make the best out of them to benefit me and the organization/person giving me the chance so we all get a desired outcome that is beneficial to both parties.
